Four hundred Paris people attended the Lexington Elk Fair Wednesday.

Don't forget Harry Simon is selling out his entire stock at actual cost before he moves.

Eld. Hagerman, of Lexington, will preach at the Christian Church Sunday morning.

The L. &amp; N. is replacing the platform around the passenger depot in the city with concrete paving.

The L. &amp; N. will run another excursion to Natural Bridge on Sunday, August 26th, at $1.50 round-trip.

The rain yesterday afternoon brought temporary relief from the intense heat experienced during the past few days.

REV. GEORGE O. BARNES and wife celebrated the anniversary of their marriage on July 26th by joining Dowie's Zion Church.

The Synod of Kentucky of the Presbyterian Church will meet in Flemingsburg Oct. 8th. Ebenezer Presbyterian also meets there that week.

ELD. J. H. OLIPHANT, of Indiana, will preach at Stony Point Church at 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. to-morrow, and at eleven Sunday morning.

LEE PIERCE and Thomas Watson were initiated into the A. O. U. W. lodge Tuesday night. It is related that the goat was especially lively on that evening.

HON. JOHN S. SMITH, of this city, was chief "Spieler" Tuesday at the Children's Theatre at the Lexington Elk Fair. Mr. Smith made a most excellent "Spieler" and drew many persons into the theatre by his original announcements.

PARISIANS should keep an eye on their diamonds while attending the Elks' Fair at Lexington. Phil Gentile, a noted diamond thief, was arrested Tuesday while trying to steal a diamond from J. W. Duncan, of Nicholasville. One of Gentile's partners was also arrested.

WHITLOCK's photograph gallery in the Agricultural Bank building is getting business from every point in the county and is giving excellent satisfaction. Mr. Porter, the artist in charge, is thoroughly up-to-date in his work, and is especially successful in photographing the little folks.

PATRICK's Whitlock's gallery in the Agricultural Bank building and get the best photographs you ever had taken. Elevator to the door. The gallery is the best equipped one in Kentucky, and is in charge of E. P. Porter, a clever artist of many years experience.

MESSRS. F. L. MCCHESENEY and J. A. Bower went over to Georgetown yesterday to be spectators at the Caleb Powers trial. It will be a surprise to the friends of these very peaceable gentlemen to learn that they were searched for weapons as they entered the court room. They had nothing more dangerous than a bunch of keys.

The Methodist Church Debt.

Rev. E. G. B. Mann has decided to go outside of his congregation in making a final effort to raise the money to pay off the debt on the Methodist Church in this city. The church was built during his pastorate in this city, largely through his efforts and he wishes to see it free from debt before he leaves Paris, as his term expires by limitation on September 19th.

The debt is $4,500, but $2,500 of the amount is secured by five members, leaving $2,000 to be raised. Rev. Mann has decided to ask the citizens to assist him in raising this sum and he should be successful in securing it in a short time. The church is a handsome structure and it is a credit to the city. The city is proud of it and its congregation, and we hope that our citizens will give liberally to help free the church from its debt.

Elder Z. T. Sweeney's Troubles.

The many Kentucky friends of Z. T. Sweeney were joined to learn Tuesday that his only son, Joseph Sweeney, drowned Monday night while in bathing near Columbus, Ind. The young man was twenty years old and was a fine young fellow. Wm. Sweeney left Tuesday morning for Columbus to attend the funeral.

Gas at Mt. Sterling.

The Mt. Sterling Gas and Oil Co. has struck such a strong flow of gas at Mt. Sterling that stones were thrown several hundred feet in the air by the gas, and work had to be suspended. Additional machinery will be put in, and it is believed that the well will supply gas for Mt. Sterling and several surrounding towns.

Quarreled In Church.

Eugene Smith and Jim Shackelford, two colored men, quarreled in a church at Jacksonville the other night and engaged in a fight when they got outside. Smith inflicted an ugly cut on Shackelford's neck, just missing his jugular vein. Smith is now in the Paris jail, and will have an examining trial to-morrow before Judge Smith.

Cincinnati's Fall Festival.

Cincinnati will give a mammoth Fall Festival at the Music Hall, Sept. 19 to 29, during which there will be three large parades. The first day parade will be allegorical in character, the second will be trade floats competing for a $1,000 prize, and the third will be a floral parade. The Harvest Queen will arrive on a river steamer and be welcomed after the manner of the King in a Mardi Grass celebration.

Christian Church Convention.

The seventh annual Convention of the Christian Church Societies will be held this year in the hospitable city of Carlisle, beginning on Monday August 20th and continuing until noon next Friday.

The Societies of the Paris Christian Church will be well represented by a goodly number of delegates.

An excellent program has been arranged for the meetings.

The Lexington Elk Fair.

The Lexington Elk Fair was formally open Tuesday afternoon by Gov. Beckham, who addressed the immense crowd. The Spanish cannon from Morro Castle, loaned the State, was presented by Lieut. Lucien Young, U. S. N., and accepted by the Governor. Both speakers were introduced by Chas. J. Bronston. There was a duplicate flower parade, with eight entries, Miss Crenshaw winning first prize. Fully three hundred Paris people were present Tuesday, four hundred attended Wednesday and five hundred took in the fair yesterday.

Paris Elks Complimented.

The Paris Elks who appeared in the parade at Lexington Monday won many well deserved compliments on their handsome appearance in their well uniformed uniforms of white and purple. The local Elks marched bravely in the rain until the parade disbanded.

The rain had a disastrous effect on the suits of some of the local Elks. Many of them were thoroughly soaked by it and their uniforms were soiled. Col. Dan Peed, the color bearer, sat down on the flag coming home on the train and arose with the stars and stripes imprinted on the bosom of his trousers. It is also related that one of the boys had to stay in bed at the Phoenix until his uniform was laundered.

Bourbon Premium Winners.

E. K. Thomas won two first and two third premiums on Shorthorn cattle Tuesday, and two seconds, one third and one fourth premiums Wednesday. J. M. Hall, of this city, won a third premium Tuesday on a three year old bull. E. C. Carpenter, won second premium on combined horse, and second Wednesday on harness horse. A. G. Jones, of North Middletown, won second on three year old stallion, Wednesday.

In the floral hall, Miss Belle Ogden won premiums on infant's hood and gloves, crocheted, and French specimen handkerchief, Miss Etta Quisenberry took premium on center piece, cornation braid, and Ben Downey secured two premiums on paintings. Walter Boone, of Elizabeth, got a premium on water-melons.

Oratory at Georgetown.

W. C. Owens spoke for the defense last night at Georgetown, and Thomas Campbell, Gov. Brown and Robert Franklin will speak to-day. The jury may get the case this afternoon.

OBITUARY.

Paul Trimble Harris, the two year old son of Ernest Harris, book-keeper of the Dow-Hayden Grocery Co., died Wednesday morning at his father's home in East Paris. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at ten o'clock at the grave in the North Middletown cemetery.

If you cannot read this small print at a distance of 14 inches your eyesight is failing and should have immediate attention:

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centred and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are left with without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy Imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Next visit—Thursday, Aug. 30, 1900. Hello, 170.
